ANN ARBOR ART CENTER ANNOUNCES ARTINI-AT-HOME 2021

[ANN ARBOR, MI, January 7, 2021]—The Ann Arbor Art Center is pleased to announce tickets are now on sale Artini-at-Home 2021. Artini, the A2AC's annual juried cocktail competition and fundraising event, takes place between Friday, February 25th and Friday, March 5th. Thanks to our partnership with the Ann Arbor Distilling Company we are able to bring Artini to you this year!

Tickets for this one-of-its-kind event are $125 and include four canned cocktails (two full pours in each can!) created by four celebrity bartenders and inspired by the murals of A2AC Murals. This year's celebrities are Alex Milshteyn, Praveena Ramaswami, Dan Rivkin, and Lisa Sauve. In addition to the pack of cocktails, each ticket includes all necessary garnishes and a tasting guide curated by the A2DC. The event kicks off with a virtual toast and wraps up with the winning cocktail being announced a week later.

Tickets to this fundraising event are on sale starting January 8th. Over the last twelve years, Artini has raised well over $220,000 to ensure that everyone has access to the visual arts. As a non-profit organization, a portion of each ticket purchase is a tax-deductible donation.

We can't wait to celebrate Artini-at-home!

About the Ann Arbor Art Center For over a century, the nonprofit Ann Arbor Art Center has been sparking creativity in people of all ages, backgrounds, and artistic abilities. Our mission is to be a contemporary forum for the visual arts through education, exploration, collaboration, and exhibition, and to engage minds, expand perspectives, and inspire growth in students of all ages, teachers, artists, and the community. We are empowered to carry out our mission through the support of individuals, corporations, and foundations who believe in the value of our work, and in creativity's essential role in sustaining and elevating our common experience. In fulfilling our mission the Art Center serves as a regional hub for the visual arts and prioritizes the longstanding partnerships we cultivate as a keystone for Ann Arbor's healthy ecosystem of cultural and civic life.
